

Janice Delfino was a pleasure to work with since she was always smiling, respectful, and very earnest about her San Francisco Bay environmental projects. She was heard at many meetings over the years making a strong case to save vital habitats. She has left behind a wonderful legacy and will be sorely missed.

Andree Greenberg